

Society

Army Notes.

(Continued from Ninth Page.)

to Pasadena, Calif., for a visit to Miss Augusta N. Dreyer.

Col. H. F. Dalton, U. S. A., and Mrs. Dalton, who have an apartment for the season at the Cairo, were joined there for the Christmas holidays by their sons, Alexander, who is a student at Yale, and Franklin, who attends the Salisbury School.

Lieut. Col. R. R. Wood, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Wood and Miss Marjorie Wood, has gone for station to Boston, where he has been detailed as zone property auditor, northeastern supply zone. Col. Wood, with his wife and daughter, recently returned from France.

Col. William R. Gibson, U. S. A., recently arrived in this city for duty, has, with Mrs. Gibson, leased an apartment for the winter at the Wardman Park Hotel.

Col. W. Gorman Gambrell, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Gambrell, has gone for station to the Presidio, Calif., where he has been detailed to duty as department quartermaster at headquarters.

Lieut. Col. S. H. McGregor, U. S. A., and Mrs. McGregor have returned to Washington and reopened their apartment at the Wardman Park Hotel, where they will make their home during the present detail in the ordnance department.

Col. J. R. Brabson, U. S. A., who since his return from overseas duty has been stationed at Ancon, Canal Zone, is receiving the congratulations of friends upon his second decoration, the medal of the Legion of Honor, for his services as chief of staff of the 28th Division during the second battle of the Marne.

Col. Charles H. Patterson, U. S. A., and Mrs. Patterson have taken possession of their new home, 2926 R street, which they recently leased.

Col. R. J. Fleming, U. S. A., and Mrs. Fleming, who have an apartment for the season at the Marlborough, have been enjoying a holiday visit from their daughter, Miss Betty Royal Fleming, who has now returned to her studies at Wellesley College.

Col. Charles H. Heyl, U. S. A., and sister, Miss Heyl, have been enjoying a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heyl, at their home, 1000 avenue, from Miss Helen Sewall, who returned last week to her home, in Philadelphia.

Lieut. Robert F. Jackson, U. S. A., retired, has gone to Middletown, Conn., for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson.

Maj. George C. Brigham, U. S. A., has gone for station to Camp Funston, Kan.

Col. Conrad E. Koerber, U. S. A., and Mrs. Koerber, now stationed at Columbus, Ga., are enjoying a visit to Washington.

Lieut. Col. Jacob C. Johnson, U. S. A., will go next week for station at Fort Monroe.

Lieut. Col. A. A. Hofmann, U. S. A., arrived in Washington for station several days ago.

Col. John West, U. S. A., who had been for some time on duty at a fortnight ago to join Mrs. West, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. William Parmelee, and accompanied her to Philadelphia, where they spent the holidays with their sons, who are attending college in that city. Col. West sailed on Thursday for Paris, where he has been detailed as assistant military attaché.

Capt. W. I. Pillans, U. S. A., arrived in Washington last week for duty here in the office of the quartermaster general.

Maj. H. N. Seales, U. S. A., who has been under treatment for some time at the Walter Reed Hospital, has covered and is now on duty in this city in the office of the adjutant general.

Col. J. Malcolm Graham, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Graham and their two daughters, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with Instructor Carroll S. Allen of the Naval Academy.

Capt. Hines, U. S. A., and Mrs. Hines have been and for the past two months at their quarters at West Point from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, who returned last week to their home in Washington.

Capt. Owen S. Albright, U. S. A., and Mrs. Albright have spent the Christmas holidays with relatives in Tennessee.

Capt. Crittenden, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Crittenden and their young son, went to Indiana to spend the holidays with relatives there. Early in the year they will go to San Antonio for a visit to Mrs. Crittenden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodhull.

Col. Housholder, U. S. A., and Mrs. Housholder have been enjoying a visit at West Point from the latter's mother, Mrs. Cleveland Garrison, wife of Col. Garrison, U. S. A. The latter joined the family party at West Point for the holidays and, with Mrs. Garrison, returned last week to their home in Washington.

Capt. Douglas Greene, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Greene and their two young sons, came to Washington for the Christmas holidays, which they spent with Mrs. Greene's parents, Col. Michael J. Lenihan, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Lenihan.

Capt. Marsh, U. S. A., and Mrs. Marsh have had a guest for some months, at West Point, the latter's brother, Mr. Julius Parran, who left to spend the Christmas holidays at his home on the eastern shore of Maryland.

Col. Robert Howell, Jr., U. S. A., and Mrs. Howell, with their little son, spent the Christmas holidays at Fort Leavenworth with Mrs. Howell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tarr.

Maj. W. S. Wood, U. S. A., and Mrs. Wood spent the Christmas holidays at Camp Grant, Ill., where they were the guests of the latter's parents, Gen. Bell, U. S. A., and Mrs. Bell.

Col. E. D. Webster, U. S. A., was joined at Ginger Hill, Pittsburgh, Pa., where they spent Christmas with their aunt, Miss George, his daughters, the Misses Anne and Mary Webster, Miss Anne Webster has now returned to boarding school in this city and Miss Mary Webster to Vassar College.

Capt. S. H. Sherrill, U. S. A., and Mrs. Sherrill, after spending the Christmas holidays at Albany, N. Y., have gone for station to Camp Funston, Kan.

Miss Lou Uline and Miss Jane Uline, daughters of Col. Willis Uline, U. S. A., and wife, after a visit of some weeks to friends in Washington, joined their mother for Christmas at Fort Leavenworth.

Miss Jean Darragh, daughter of Col. Thomas W. Darragh, U. S. A., and Mrs. Darragh, will return to her studies in Washington this week from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., where she spent the Christmas holidays with her parents.

Col. Silas A. Wolf, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Wolf, has gone south to remain until the early spring.

Maj. Lester Gayle, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Gayle, after spending a portion of their honeymoon with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Groner, at Norfolk, have gone to Kansas City, Mo., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. John R. Herrick, wife of Capt. Herrick, has joined her husband at Camp Travis, Texas, where he is now on duty.

Mrs. Gilbert Allen, wife of Lieut. Col. Allen, U. S. A., went last week to Camp Pike to join her husband, who has just been detailed to duty at that place.

Col. Latrobe, U. S. A., with Mrs. Latrobe, has gone for station to Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

Col. Charles D. Hartman, U. S. A., has returned to his duties in Washington from an inspection trip on the Mexican border.

Brig. Gen. Alfred W. Bjornstad, U. S. A., has returned to Washington from Fort Snelling, Minn., where he was called by the death of his father.

Capt. Samuel D. Sturgis, U. S. A., spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis, U. S. A., and Mrs. Sturgis, in St. Paul, Minn.

Col. John DeCamp Hall, U. S. A., with Mrs. Hall and their young daughter, Margaret, is spending the winter at the Brighton, in this city.

Mrs. Sanford H. Wadhams, wife of Col. Wadhams, U. S. A., left Washington some days before Christmas to spend the holidays with her mother at the latter's home in Indianapolis.

Col. James B. Gowen, U. S. A., and Mrs. Gowen have had as their guests at the Washington barracks during the holidays the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Capt. George Roe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Roe, who have now returned to New York.

Miss Elizabeth Gowen, sister of Col. Gowen, also came from New York to join the family gathering at the Washington barracks.

Capt. Edwin R. Lewis, U. S. A., has returned to the Washington barracks after a ten-day visit to his mother, Mrs. M. Lewis Munn, at her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Brig. Gen. Preston Brown, U. S. A., and Mrs. Brown have had a visit at their home in this city from their son, Mr. Dorrance Brown, who came to Washington to spend the holidays with his parents.

Navy and Marine Corps Notes.

Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, U. S. N., retired, with his daughter, Miss Katherine Knight, after a visit to his married daughter at Norfolk, has come to Washington for the remainder of the winter, and is established at 1325 Corcoran street.

Miss Lilla Sands, daughter of the late Admiral Benjamin Sands, U. S. N., is spending the holidays in Washington with Mrs. Amelia Dutton and Miss Dutton, at 1325 19th street.

Brig. Gen. Wendell C. Neville, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Neville are established for the winter in the apartment recently leased at the Ontario, Ontario road northwest.

Mrs. Alfred P. Tawressey, wife of Lieut. Tawressey, U. S. N., and their little daughter have gone to Annapolis to spend the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Williams, whose home is at 185 Prince George street.

Mrs. James C. Kress, widow of Lieut. Commander Kress, U. S. N., who accompanied by her father, Gen. Adolphus Greely, U. S. A., retired, recently came to Washington to accompany her husband's remains for interment in Arlington, has now returned to Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Charles M. Pyne, mother of Paymaster Frederick G. Pyne, U. S. N., who spent the holidays at her home at the Richmond, has now leased an apartment at the Goddard.

Rear Admiral William H. Brownson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Brownson have been enjoying a visit to Washington in this city from their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. Charles L. Huxsey, U. S. N., and Mrs. Huxsey.

Commander Grant, U. S. N., and Mrs. Grant have had as a visitor at the Commodore, Washington, Miss Elizabeth Cawthorne.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.

Chaplain Sidney K. Evans, U. S. N., has returned to Annapolis, following a visit to his sisters at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Lieut. William Norton Snelling, U. S. N., made a short visit last week to his parents, at their home in Athens, Ga.

Concession Granted by Mexico. Under an agreement with the Mexican authorities, unarmed American military passengers will be routed over railroads passing through Mexico in connecting points, in the United States, the War Department announced yesterday. The agreement was expected to facilitate travel of organized bodies of soldiers, although unarmed, and that the military passengers would not be permitted to leave the trains while on Mexican soil.

of Norfolk and Miss Harriet Seales, daughter of Rear Admiral A. H. Seales, U. S. N., both of whom have now returned to Norfolk.

Lieut. Howard Hartley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hartley went to Richmond to spend the Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley.

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Long, U. S. A., has been enjoying duck shooting on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gay Steele, at their home in Cambridge, Md.

Lieut. Commander W. A. Edwards, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edwards have recently made a visit to Denton, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton H. Powell.

Capt. George W. Williams, U. S. N., spent the holidays with his mother, at her home in Columbus, S. C.

Mrs. Plunkett, mother of Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett, U. S. N., is at 1531 Church street, for the season.

Lieut. Stuart W. King, U. S. M. C., has been enjoying a fortnight visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. King, at their home, in Alexandria, Va.

Lieut. L. C. Stevens, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stevens have visiting them at Annapolis, Miss Margaret Mahler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. John T. Bowers, wife of Commander Bowers, U. S. N., with their two sons, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Green, and her brothers, Dr. T. Kent Green and Mr. John M. Green.

Capt. Roscoe Arnold, U. S. M. C., joined his wife for the holidays, at her home in Washington, where she has been for some time on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jefferson.

Lieut. Commander R. W. Lewis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lewis, spent the holidays visiting relatives in Cambridge, Ohio.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.

Chaplain Sidney K. Evans, U. S. N., has returned to Annapolis, following a visit to his sisters at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Lieut. William Norton Snelling, U. S. N., made a short visit last week to his parents, at their home in Athens, Ga.

Concession Granted by Mexico. Under an agreement with the Mexican authorities, unarmed American military passengers will be routed over railroads passing through Mexico in connecting points, in the United States, the War Department announced yesterday. The agreement was expected to facilitate travel of organized bodies of soldiers, although unarmed, and that the military passengers would not be permitted to leave the trains while on Mexican soil.

of Norfolk and Miss Harriet Seales, daughter of Rear Admiral A. H. Seales, U. S. N., both of whom have now returned to Norfolk.

Lieut. Howard Hartley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hartley went to Richmond to spend the Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley.

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Long, U. S. A., has been enjoying duck shooting on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gay Steele, at their home in Cambridge, Md.

Lieut. Commander W. A. Edwards, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edwards have recently made a visit to Denton, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton H. Powell.

Capt. George W. Williams, U. S. N., spent the holidays with his mother, at her home in Columbus, S. C.

Mrs. Plunkett, mother of Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett, U. S. N., is at 1531 Church street, for the season.

Lieut. Stuart W. King, U. S. M. C., has been enjoying a fortnight visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. King, at their home, in Alexandria, Va.

Lieut. L. C. Stevens, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stevens have visiting them at Annapolis, Miss Margaret Mahler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. John T. Bowers, wife of Commander Bowers, U. S. N., with their two sons, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Green, and her brothers, Dr. T. Kent Green and Mr. John M. Green.

Capt. Roscoe Arnold, U. S. M. C., joined his wife for the holidays, at her home in Washington, where she has been for some time on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jefferson.

Lieut. Commander R. W. Lewis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lewis, spent the holidays visiting relatives in Cambridge, Ohio.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.

Chaplain Sidney K. Evans, U. S. N., has returned to Annapolis, following a visit to his sisters at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Lieut. William Norton Snelling, U. S. N., made a short visit last week to his parents, at their home in Athens, Ga.

Concession Granted by Mexico. Under an agreement with the Mexican authorities, unarmed American military passengers will be routed over railroads passing through Mexico in connecting points, in the United States, the War Department announced yesterday. The agreement was expected to facilitate travel of organized bodies of soldiers, although unarmed, and that the military passengers would not be permitted to leave the trains while on Mexican soil.

of Norfolk and Miss Harriet Seales, daughter of Rear Admiral A. H. Seales, U. S. N., both of whom have now returned to Norfolk.

Lieut. Howard Hartley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hartley went to Richmond to spend the Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley.

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Long, U. S. A., has been enjoying duck shooting on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gay Steele, at their home in Cambridge, Md.

Lieut. Commander W. A. Edwards, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edwards have recently made a visit to Denton, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton H. Powell.

Capt. George W. Williams, U. S. N., spent the holidays with his mother, at her home in Columbus, S. C.

Mrs. Plunkett, mother of Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett, U. S. N., is at 1531 Church street, for the season.

Lieut. Stuart W. King, U. S. M. C., has been enjoying a fortnight visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. King, at their home, in Alexandria, Va.

Lieut. L. C. Stevens, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stevens have visiting them at Annapolis, Miss Margaret Mahler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. John T. Bowers, wife of Commander Bowers, U. S. N., with their two sons, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Green, and her brothers, Dr. T. Kent Green and Mr. John M. Green.

Capt. Roscoe Arnold, U. S. M. C., joined his wife for the holidays, at her home in Washington, where she has been for some time on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jefferson.

Lieut. Commander R. W. Lewis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lewis, spent the holidays visiting relatives in Cambridge, Ohio.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.

Chaplain Sidney K. Evans, U. S. N., has returned to Annapolis, following a visit to his sisters at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Lieut. William Norton Snelling, U. S. N., made a short visit last week to his parents, at their home in Athens, Ga.

Concession Granted by Mexico. Under an agreement with the Mexican authorities, unarmed American military passengers will be routed over railroads passing through Mexico in connecting points, in the United States, the War Department announced yesterday. The agreement was expected to facilitate travel of organized bodies of soldiers, although unarmed, and that the military passengers would not be permitted to leave the trains while on Mexican soil.

of Norfolk and Miss Harriet Seales, daughter of Rear Admiral A. H. Seales, U. S. N., both of whom have now returned to Norfolk.

Lieut. Howard Hartley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hartley went to Richmond to spend the Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley.

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Long, U. S. A., has been enjoying duck shooting on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gay Steele, at their home in Cambridge, Md.

Lieut. Commander W. A. Edwards, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edwards have recently made a visit to Denton, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton H. Powell.

Capt. George W. Williams, U. S. N., spent the holidays with his mother, at her home in Columbus, S. C.

Mrs. Plunkett, mother of Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett, U. S. N., is at 1531 Church street, for the season.

Lieut. Stuart W. King, U. S. M. C., has been enjoying a fortnight visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. King, at their home, in Alexandria, Va.

Lieut. L. C. Stevens, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stevens have visiting them at Annapolis, Miss Margaret Mahler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. John T. Bowers, wife of Commander Bowers, U. S. N., with their two sons, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Green, and her brothers, Dr. T. Kent Green and Mr. John M. Green.

Capt. Roscoe Arnold, U. S. M. C., joined his wife for the holidays, at her home in Washington, where she has been for some time on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jefferson.

Lieut. Commander R. W. Lewis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lewis, spent the holidays visiting relatives in Cambridge, Ohio.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.

Chaplain Sidney K. Evans, U. S. N., has returned to Annapolis, following a visit to his sisters at their home in Scranton, Pa.

Lieut. William Norton Snelling, U. S. N., made a short visit last week to his parents, at their home in Athens, Ga.

Concession Granted by Mexico. Under an agreement with the Mexican authorities, unarmed American military passengers will be routed over railroads passing through Mexico in connecting points, in the United States, the War Department announced yesterday. The agreement was expected to facilitate travel of organized bodies of soldiers, although unarmed, and that the military passengers would not be permitted to leave the trains while on Mexican soil.

of Norfolk and Miss Harriet Seales, daughter of Rear Admiral A. H. Seales, U. S. N., both of whom have now returned to Norfolk.

Lieut. Howard Hartley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hartley went to Richmond to spend the Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Johnston Dudley.

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Long, U. S. A., has been enjoying duck shooting on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gay Steele, at their home in Cambridge, Md.

Lieut. Commander W. A. Edwards, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edwards have recently made a visit to Denton, N. C., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton H. Powell.

Capt. George W. Williams, U. S. N., spent the holidays with his mother, at her home in Columbus, S. C.

Mrs. Plunkett, mother of Rear Admiral Charles P. Plunkett, U. S. N., is at 1531 Church street, for the season.

Lieut. Stuart W. King, U. S. M. C., has been enjoying a fortnight visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. King, at their home, in Alexandria, Va.

Lieut. L. C. Stevens, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stevens have visiting them at Annapolis, Miss Margaret Mahler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. John T. Bowers, wife of Commander Bowers, U. S. N., with their two sons, went to Annapolis to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Richard H. Green, and her brothers, Dr. T. Kent Green and Mr. John M. Green.

Capt. Roscoe Arnold, U. S. M. C., joined his wife for the holidays, at her home in Washington, where she has been for some time on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Jefferson.

Lieut. Commander R. W. Lewis, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lewis, spent the holidays visiting relatives in Cambridge, Ohio.

Capt. Del Valle, U. S. M. C., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kitty Del Valle, went to Annapolis for the holidays.

Capt. Wat T. Cluverius, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cluverius enjoyed a visit during the holidays at Annapolis, from their nephew, Ensign Sampson Scott, U. S. N.

Mrs. F. V. McNair, widow of Rear Admiral McNair, U. S. N., has gone for the winter to Annapolis, where she is established for the season at Carver Hall.

Lieut. D. W. Coe, U. S. N., returned last week to duty at Portsmouth, Va., after a visit to his family at Annapolis.